5 Days 2 Weekends 68 Artists 44 Studios

In connection with the Turquoise Trail Association, a nonprofit organization dedicated in providing travelers with an interesting, educational, recreational, cultural, historical and natural experience, the Santa Fe Studio Tour 2015, in its ninth tour, has expanded to two art-filled weekends. A free, self-guided tour, you can choose any number of the 44 open studios and discover the original art – paintings, photography, sculpture, jewelry, ceramics and other unique works – of over 68 Santa Fe artists. All art work is for sale. Many artists give demonstrations of their craft, share techniques and discuss what inspires their work.

Friday, June 19 from 5:30pm – 7:30pm the tour begins with an Artists' Reception exhibiting artwork by all participating artists. This exhibition is available for preview over the first weekend at the Santa Fe University of Art and Design. It is an opportunity for you to view all the artists' work and map out the weekend's tour.

The Preview Gallery is also open Saturday & Sunday, June 20 & June 21 from 10AM - 5PM.

Saturday & Sunday, June 20 & June 21 and June 27 & June 28 from 10AM to 5PM all participating artists open their studio doors to collectors and visitors.

Visit the Santa Fe Studio Tour website to view the work of all participating artists and begin planning your personalized tour

Turquoise Trail Association (TTA) is a nonprofit organization 501 (c) (6). Scenic views, diverse cultures, extensive history, and great outdoor opportunities continue to entice visitors to journey down the Turquoise Trail. Throughout New Mexico one can explore unique towns, restaurants, shops, lodging, museums, and artist's studios/galleries. The TTA strives to promote and support local artists and tourism in New Mexico. The Turquoise Trail Association was created in 1983 by local businesses to create a tourism destination and to promote and protect the back road from Albuquerque to Santa Fe. The Trail was designated a National Scenic Byway in 2000.
